Streetlight Theatre Presents: Little Shop of Horrors April 28th – April 30th

Little Shop of Horrors is a horror comedy rock musical with music by Alan Menken and lyrics and a book by Howard Ashman. The story follows a hapless florist shop worker who raises a plant that feeds on human blood and flesh. The music, composed by Menken in the style of early 1960s rock and roll, doo-wop and early Motown, includes several well-known tunes, including the title song, "Skid Row (Downtown)", "Somewhere That's Green", and "Suddenly, Seymour." This will be our first production in our new home - The Tower! Tickets are on sale now and available exclusively on our website: <https://streetlighttheatre.org> Seating is limited, with grazing boxes, snacks, and refreshments available. We can't wait to see you and thank you for supporting the arts in our community! *This show is geared toward adult audiences. It deals with mature themes and contains language and themes that may be considered offensive.
